

The Psychological Services and Counselling Training Centre presents

Know Your Code: An Ethics Refresher for Counsellors and Psychologists

This panel presentation by BC-based psychologists and counsellor-educators will examine the key things to pay attention to in your counselling/psychology practice to avoid having an ethics complaint made against you. Learn about the most common ethical challenges, the ongoing importance of consultation, and how ongoing discussions of ethical dilemmas can keep your practice on track.

Monday March 28th

4:30pm - 6:00pm PST

Register online for the virtual workshop!

$25 Faculty & Community Members

$10 Students

Meet Our Panelists

Beth Haverkamp, PhD,

Dr. Beth Haverkamp is Associate Professor of Counselling Psychology at the University of British Columbia. She has conducted research on perceptual processes in counselling and teaches courses in research methodology, psychological testing, and ethics.

Michael Sorsdahl, PhD, RPsych

Dr. Michael Sorsdahl is a practicing psychologist and psychotherapist in BC and in Alberta with his company Juvenation Wellness, as well as a Counsellor Educator in several Counselling Psychology programs. He is the current CCPA Ethics Committee – Complaints Division chairperson and past-president of the Counsellor Educator and Supervisors Chapter, committed to helping counselling practitioners develop a strong ethical practice.

Bill Borgen, PhD, CCC, RPsych,

Dr. Bill Borgen, RPsych, CCC is a professor in the Counselling Psychology program at UBC. He has served on the Board of the BC College of Psychologists, and is also registered in Alberta. Bill is the Co-Chair of the Council for the Accreditation of Counsellor Education Programs in Canada, and is the President of the International Association for Counselling.

